

Privacy Policy:

Information collected from applicants is for evaluating admissions decisions. PRISMS does not sell or rent your information to any people. Your information is only shared with the application service providers and PRISMS personnel who are involved in the admission decision-making process.